What You Heard In the Word

- Jesus' disciples dropped what they were doing to follow him. They went to tell others that the Messiah had come!
- Jesus said he would make his disciples "fishers of men." Instead of catching fish with nets, they would bring people to God with the good news of Jesus.

Ask your child these questions from today's lesson:

1. Which disciple went to tell Nathanael about Jesus? Philip.
2. What job did Andrew and Peter leave behind to follow Jesus? They were fishermen.
3. Which two disciples were with their father Zebedee when Jesus called them? James and John.

Memory Verse

Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.

John 3:36

Justin & Jessie

"Mom and I were talking about how we could do a better job of following Jesus," said Jessie's dad, "starting today."

"Today?!" Jessie gasped. This could only mean one thing! "I guess I better start packing," she thought.

Why is Jessie packing all her things? Find out what happens when Jessie learns about following Jesus in "Whispers, Worries, & Bulging Suitcases."
