A Course On New Testament Discipleship

Topic #4

The Christian and Prayer

Objectives: As a result of this study we want to be able to:

- 1. Understand the nature of prayer.
- 2. Ascertain if God answers the prayers of non-Christians.
- 3. Be able to state four reasons as to why we should pray.
- 4. Discern the different types of prayer illustrated in the Scriptures, while examining five common hindrances to answered prayer.
- 5. Consider the mechanics of how we should pray.
- 6. Memorize two Bible promises in relation to prayer.

A. Prayer simply defined is talking with God & so prayer is Introduction: There is no possible way to emphasize enough the importance of prayer. Andrew Murray, the great Reformed preacher of the 19th century said, "God works only in answer to our prayers. It is in prayer that we change our strength for the supernatural strength of God." The great pastor and preacher Dr. R. A. Torrey wrote, "Nothing lies beyond the reach of prayer except that which lies beyond the will of God."

Prayer is one of the greatest resources God has given us, but very often the least used. In this lesson, I hope that we will understand the truths God has revealed concerning the nature of prayer, our need and privilege to pray, and typical hindrances that keep our prayers from being answered.

I. What Is Prayer?

a dialogue between people who love each other.
1. God's unconditional & unchanging love for His people is emphasized throughout the Scriptures—and so God recorded through Jeremiah the prophet of His never-ending eternal for believers (31:3):
3 The LORD appeared to him from afar, saying, "I have loved you with an everlasting love ; Therefore I have drawn you with lovingkindness.
2. David, who failed God with both murder and adultery, wrote under the inspiration of the Spirit, of God's unchanging love in Psalm .

17 But the lovingkindness of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear Him, And His righteousness to children's children (Psalm 103:17).
3. Jesus revealed in His high priestly prayer that God the Father loves those who are born again — as much as He loves — His own
22 "The glory which You have given Me I have given to them, that they may be one, just as We are one; 23 I in them and You in Me, that they may be perfected in unity, so that the world may know that You sent Me, and loved them, even as You have loved Me (John 17:22–23).
4. God does not consider those—who have met Jesus Christ in salvation to be His enemies — but now as forgiven people — to be His 15 "No longer do I call you slaves, for the slave does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends , for all things that I have heard from My Father I have made known to you (John 15:15).
5. In the thinking of the ancient world—a slave could be a useful and trusted tool—but could be thought of as a friend.
6. In addition, in the Jewish culture — the relationship between a disciple and His rabbi, was expected to be a "friendship."
7. Yet, the Lord Jesus described—the measure and quality of His love for us His disciples, as a that treats servants as "friends" (cf. Romans 5:10).
8. So with prayer — simply defined as being — a dialogue between people who love each other—the Prophet Jeremiah was told by God:
"Call to Me, and I will answer you, and I will tell you great and mighty things, which you do not know" (Jeremiah 33:3).
B. Prayer is the channel for appropriating God's resources that we might with the Lord and please Him.
14 Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens. Jesus the Son of God let us hold fast our confession. 15 For we do not have a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses , but One who has been tempted in all things as we are, yet without sin (Hebrews 4:14-16).
1. As Christians we have no priest, but Christ & He is able to "sympathize with our weaknesses" or "infirmities" (KJV, YLT, ASV).

2.	The term "weakness" is used in reference to our intellectual infirmities as seen our ignorance when praying (Romans 8:26) but also in reference to our physical infirmities (Galatians 4:13) and our moral weaknesses (Romans 6:19).
	min mittes (Galatians 4.13) and our moral weaknesses (Romans 0.17).
•	TT 1 1 0 10 1 TT 1 1 TT 1 10 1
3.	He our physical infirmities because He incarnated Himself in human flesh & so — we find that Jesus — became thirsty (John 4:6) — hungry (Matthew 4:2)—tired (John 4:6) & He experienced pain (John 19:1,28).
4	He our intellectual infirmities in that by the union of His human
••	and divine natures—each of the natures retained its own attributes.
	and divine natures—each of the natures retained its own attributes.
5.	When He embraced perfect humanity it did not make Him any less,
	& in retaining His undiminished deity, it did not make Him less human.
6.	This is Jesus on the one hand—can be seen as—knowing everything
	(Matthew 17:27) & on the other hand as not knowing everything (24:36).
	(Whatehew 17.27) & on the other hand as not knowing everything (24.50).
/.	Christ also understood — our moral frailties as sinners — in that while He never sinned (2 Cor. 5:21; Heb. 4:15; 1 Peter 2:22;1 John 3:5), He was still no less qualified to "sympathize" with us in temptations.
8.	The Lord Jesus was "tempted in all things as we are" (Hebrews 4:15) in that He was tempted in every realm of temptation—the lust of the flesh,
	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	the lust of the eyes the pride of life (Matthew 4:1-11; 1 John 2:16).
9.	Unfortunately, sometimes people have reasoned that because Jesus is God that He could—never know temptation—the same way do.
10.	But in reality, the sinless Son of God knows temptation in ways we not because having never given into temptation — He knows "the full strength of temptation" & so can "sympathize with our weaknesses."
	strength of temptation & so can sympathize with our weaknesses.
11
11.	If Christ had sinned—He would have been—any more tender & sympathetic toward us—for sin only makes us—callous & insensitive.
12.	Contrary to the way some people reason — if the Messiah had sinned,
	He would have the perfection — of His sympathetic nature.
13	And so, that Christ experienced the full force of temptation without having ever yielded to temptation—makes Him sympathetic.
13.	•
	16 Therefore let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

14. In light of these truths, we are admonished to come "with confidence" or "boldly" (NKJV) because Jesus as our "great high priest" is both omnipotent and compassionate—and willing & wanting to help
15. One of Satan's chief strategies is to discourage us from our access to God through Christ—making us think that Jesus is unapproachable.
16. Coming to Christ "boldly" does mean proudly or arrogantly or with presumption, but it does mean — that we can come without reservation.
17. In approaching Him — we are promised that — we will "receive mercy," that is that we will not receive what we do deserve—and that we will "find grace," receiving what we do not deserve—because of Jesus' work on the
II. Who Can Pray?
The promises throughout the Word of God on prayer are not given primarily to non-Christians, but for those who have placed their faith in Christ. Prayer is the high and holy privilege of those who have become children of God.
A. Those who pray must belong to Christ.
1. The Bible teaches us, that prayer is the privilege—of those who the children of God (John 1:12), and so Jesus can promise us (John 14:13):
13 "Whatever you ask in My name, that will I do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son.
2. To emphasize the that this is the privilege of believers to have their prayers heard and answered — King David tells us — in Psalm 34:15:
15 The eyes of the LORD are toward the righteous
And His ears are open to their cry.
3. King Solomon records this truth for us in Proverbs 15:29:
29 The LORD is far from the wicked, But He hears the prayer of the righteous.
4. We do know—that nearly the promises in Scripture concerning God answering prayer — are given to those — who have placed their faith in Christ for salvation such that — they can approach God through Jesus.
5 For there is one God, and one mediator also between God and men, the man Christ Jesus (1 Timothy 2:5).

5.	Since there — is only "one God" — there is need for "one mediator" and that "mediator" is "Christ Jesus."
6.	Sadly, some by their practice imply that "Christ Jesus" is "one" among and so they — have included angels, saints & the "Virgin Mary" — as other "mediators."
7.	In fact, an official doctrine & dogma of the Roman Catholic Church, established by Pope Paul VI in 1964 at the Second Vatican Council, is that is — to be considered — to be the "Co-Mediatrix."
8.	However, to teach that the work of mediation in our prayers can somehow be shared between Mary & God's Son—is exegetically impossible as determined by the preceding clause this verse.
	5 For there is one God, and one mediator also between God and men, the man Christ Jesus (1 Timothy 2:5).
9.	To say that Christ is "one" among "many mediators" is to say that God is "one" among many "gods" — a thought that is clearly
10.	Paul simply applies to prayer what Jesus taught in John 14:6, that there is no valid to approach God — that does not come through Jesus.
11.	In our pluralistic world, most people think that any road can lead to God if followed sincerely — or with a good (Proverbs 14:12).
12.	While denying Jesus' deity (1 Timothy 1:2)—Paul is emphasizing Christ's humanity — because without taking humanity — to Himself, the Lord Jesus could not be a "mediator between God and man."
13.	The nature of a mediator is that he must represent sides equally — and in this case — "God and man" and so, our "Mediator" — is both "God and man" forever.
14.	Even though Jesus is enthroned in heaven above — He is still human, for when the Eternal Son — the Second Person of the Trinity added humanity to His deity—He added it forever—not only for years.
15.	And so the "Mediator" we have—as our "great high priest" wants you to know that He understands your "weaknesses" & you can come to
16.	This always raises the question, "Does God the prayer of the lost?"
17.	Interestingly, in describing the prayer life of a Roman centurion named Cornelius — before he heard the gospel & believed in the Lord Jesus, so that he might be saved — Luke records for us in Acts chapter:

1 Now there was a man at Caesarea named Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian cohort, 2 a devout man and one who feared God with all his household, and gave many alms to the Jewish people and prayed to God continually. 3 About the ninth hour of the day he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God who had just come in and said to him, "Cornelius!" 4 And fixing his gaze on him and being much alarmed, he said, "What is it, Lord?" And he said to him, "Your prayers and alms have ascended as a memorial before God." 18. He was following the Jewish hour of prayer by praying at the ___ hour, or 3 PM — which tells me God was working in Cornelius' heart and that he was responding to all of the light that he knew to respond to. 19. Evidently, he attended the synagogue & to the best of his knowledge & ability, Cornelius followed—the Old Testament Scriptures—such that he ____ only prayed—but he "gave many alms" to—the Jewish people. 20. We do know that Cornelius was not a full-fledged proselyte to Judaism, for he had been circumcised (11:3)—but he did worship the Lord. 21. In addition, we know for certain — from Peter's report to the church in Jerusalem—that Cornelius had ____ yet been "saved" (Acts 11:14). 13 "And he reported to us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying, 'Send to Joppa and have Simon, who is also called Peter, brought here; 14 and he will speak words to you by which you will be saved, you and all your household.' 22. Nevertheless, God answered — the prayer of a man — who was not yet "saved" but was responding to ____ the light he had & so the angel said: "Your prayers and alms have ascended as a memorial before God. 23. The difference between Cornelius—and many religious people today is that he knew that his religious devotion was not sufficient to ____ him. 24. Many religious people today, are satisfied that their good works will get them to heaven, but apparently by the way God answered his prayer he had been asking God to show him the ____ of salvation (Acts 11:13-14).

25. So, we cannot say — that God never answers the prayer of an unsaved person for God can show His common grace to ____ (Matthew 5:43-47).

26. Expressions of God's grace shown to all people is _____ in the fact that God, "causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous" (Matthew 5:45; cf. Luke 6:45).

21.	to go into judgment — but that God is for people not wanting any to be to be condemned (2 Peter 3:9)—but to be saved as stated in John 3:17:
	17 "For God did not send the Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through Him.
28.	We can see why God desired to answer Cornelius' prayer—in that he responding to God's gracious revelation shown to him because God's desire for him—was not that he perish but that he be saved.
29.	So, God answer the prayer of a lost man if He so choses, especially the lost individual responding to God's initiative in his life (John 6:44).
30.	In addition, God does promise in every instance that He will answer the prayer of a person—calling on Him for salvation (Romans 10:13).
31.	And so, Luke 23:42—we find the thief on the cross who prayed, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom" and God instantly granted him the of salvation (Luke 23:43).
32.	In the parable of the Pharisee & the publican—the tax collector simply prayed, "God, be merciful to me, the sinner" (Luke 18:13c) and Christ promised him salvation saying, "he went to his house justified" (18:14).
33.	With this said, while God can answer the prayer of a lost person and while He promises to answer their call in faith to Him for salvation, the rest of His promises—concerning prayer—are for the
34.	If you have received Christ as Lord — it is your privilege to learn & to claim His prayer promises—as you address God as your Father, which again, is why God's promises on prayer belong to 1st & foremost to
35.	If you are taking this course & have never received Christ—if you will turn to God from your sin and trust Jesus' death and resurrection for your forgiveness then you will gain the privileges of prayer with
B. Th	nose who pray must pray in the of Jesus.
1.	Since Jesus is the way to the Father (John 14:6) — that makes Him the one intercessor between God and man (1 Timothy 2:5), which is why in the Upper Room He promised all who believe in Him (John 14:13-14):
	"Whatever you ask in My name, that will I do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 "If you ask Me anything in My name, I will do it.

2.	Later that evening on the way to Gethsemane He said (John 16:23-24):
]	23 "In that day you will not question Me about anything. Truly, truly, say to you, if you ask the Father for anything in My name , He will give it to you. 24 "Until now you have asked for nothing in My name; ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be made full.
3.	When we pray in "Jesus' name" we are confessing that it is through the merits of the cross and through the righteousness given to us as a gift (Philippians 3:7-8)—that we can approach in prayer.
4.	When we pray in "Jesus' name" we are confessing that we are coming in His righteousness—but also that are accessing Christ's power, for He has "all authority in heaven and on earth" (Matt. 28:18-20).
5.	When Christ invites us to pray — "in My name" — He is giving us some 'magical formula' but rather an 'endorsement' & a 'limitation.'
6.	He is giving us an 'endorsement' like a blank check—or possibly a friend — who says to you — "You may use my name!"
7.	But in addition, the Lord is giving us a "limitation" in that our petition or praise should in keeping with "the character" of God's "name."
8.	It is not by accident that the very first entreaty in the Lord's Prayer is, "hallowed be Your name" (Luke 11:2) because any request that does not glorify God's "name" — should be asked in Jesus' "name."
9.	Simply said, praying "in Jesus name" — comes with parameters because because to know His "name" means that we approach Him in a way that would please Him & honor Him & glorify Him—because He is
	13 "Whatever you ask in My name, that will I do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 "If you ask Me anything in My name, I will do it.
10.	In other words, the "whatever" & the "anything" in John 14:13-14, is qualified all that God has revealed in the Bible about prayer.
11.	As we will learn, God answers prayers—o to honor His "name" which is why it is essential that our prayer be in His (1 John 5:14&15).
12.	Remember, prayer is a dialogue—between two people who love each other such that when you someone, you honor his or her name.

13.	When you love someone, you would use their name in an undignified manner — and so any request that does not glorify God's "name" should not be asked in His "name."
C. Th	ose who pray must pray with a heart.
1.	While sometimes Christians will speak — of God "not hearing" the prayer of the lost—the truth is that most of the passages addressing unanswered prayer concern not those who are lost — but those who are
2.	For instance— in Psalm 66:18 — the psalmist says of himself:
	18 If I regard wickedness in my heart, The Lord will not hear.
3.	The psalmist does not say "If I sin" God "will not hear" — for the Bible teaches we — "all stumble in many ways" (James 3:2 cf. 1 John 1:8-10), but rather _ we "cherish" or "harbor" sin—then God "will not hear."
4.	The Prophet Isaiah drives home the same truth about God's people who had strayed away from God's to serve themselves (Isaiah 59:1-2):
	1 Behold, the LORD'S hand is not so short That it cannot save; Nor is His ear so dull That it cannot hear. 2 But your iniquities have made a separation between you and your God, And your sins have hidden His face from you so that He does not hear.
5.	The problem was not God, for His strength had not diminished because, "the LORD'S hand is not so short That it cannot save" or deliver
6.	Neither was the problem — that God lacks knowledge of our needs, and certainly, the problem was not — that God is not concerned — with needs—and so Isaiah speaks of, "His ear so dull That it cannot hear."
7.	He can hear for He is omniscient & He can act for He is omnipotent and so, the problem is not with God's power or His knowledge or His interest, but the problem is with "iniquities" that has broken fellowship.
8.	While sin in the life of the true believer—cannot sever our eternal relationship with God—and it certainly cannot separate from the presence of God, because God is everywhere (Psalm 139:7).
9.	Sin clearly does separate us from fellowship with God and the blessings that come with that fellowship — such that God wants us — to identify the iniquity within us before we bring our requests & petitions to

	Much like the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:11-32) who was still loved by his father — when we are in sin — much like the Prodigal Son we are still loved by God but we do not enjoy the benefits of his
11.	How easy it is for us to blame our problems—on everything except our sin, but it is "our iniquities" & not God's lack of interest or power that hinder our ability to see God respond and to answer our prayers.
12.	So while the above verses are often quoted out of context as a basis for God not hearing the prayers of the lost—the context is in reference to believers through broken fellowship—have unanswered prayer.
D. Th	ose who pray must a forgiving spirit.
1.	When the disciples watched Jesus pray of them asked (Luke 11:1):
	"Lord, teach us to pray just as John also taught his disciples."
2.	And in His instruction to them — He reminded them that instrumental to effective prayer is to have a forgiving heart to those who wrong
	14 "For if you forgive others for their transgressions, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. 15 "But if you do not forgive others, then your Father will not forgive your transgressions (Matthew 6:14–15).
3.	On another occasion—Jesus very similar instruction—in saying:
	24 "Therefore I say to you, all things for which you pray and ask, believe that u have received them, and they will be granted you. 25 "Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father who in heaven will also forgive you your transgressions (Mark 11:24–25).
4.	In the model prayer, the necessity of a forgiving heart is underscored when the Lord instructs us to (Matthew 6:12 cf. Luke 11:4a):
	12 'And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.
	While forgiveness is a mark of real conversion (Matthew 18:21-35), it is also a characteristic of the believer in fellowship with
6.	While as a general principle a believer will forgive others, it is possible a believer to withhold forgiveness & so Ephesians 4:32 says:
	32 Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you.

7.	God teaches us in this verse—that our forgiveness "to one another" is to be patterned after the forgiveness—that Jesus has shown
8.	God is commanding us to show—the same kindness, tender heartedness & forgiveness as He shows him—because He knows we withhold it.
9.	In Ephesians 4:32—it is not that we forgive—in order for Jesus to forgive us, but that we are to forgive because He has forgiven
10.	Two key words in this command are the words "just as" because when we think of the amazing way in which Christ has forgiven us — it is dishonorable for us—to withhold forgiveness—from people.
11.	God in Christ — waited for us and wooed us to Himself — He took the initiative in forgiveness even though by nature we were interested.
12.	Over & over again in Scripture—God keeps reaching out to lost sinners for reconciliation even when sinners—reject Him again and again.
13.	When God forgives us—He does so completely—without first setting some kind of probationary period before He forgives — even knowing that the sin He forgives us of—may be committed by us again in the same
	9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness (1 John 1:9).
14.	Before we come to Christ—in worship and in prayer—we are exhorted to have our hearts both before God & men—and so Jesus said:
	23 "Therefore if you are presenting your offering at the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, 24 leave your offering there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and present your offering" (Matthew 5:23, 24).
	We should never think—that our worship & service towards the Lord justifies bad relationships with others & so it is far more important to reconciled to a brother—than to come in worship—and in prayer.
16.	The Apostle Paul gave a similar command to us in Romans 12:18 that, "If possible, so far as it depends on you, be at peace with all men."

III. Why Are We To Pray?

God gives us many motivations for prayer and when we understand through the renewing of our minds, a fervency begins to develop in our hearts to pray.

A.	W	e should pray because God is through prayer.
	1.	The Lord Jesus — explained to the disciples in the Upper Room as to God is glorified in prayer when He said (John15:7-8):
		7 "If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. 8 "My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be My disciples.
	2.	Jesus makes a marvelous promise & an astonishing pledge, but very often the conditions are not met — for He makes plain that the key to getting — what we want — is wanting what — He
	3.	And the key to wanting what He wants is letting His Word 'abide in'
	4.	Then we can in faith ask "whatever" we want and trust God to answer, and it will be answered — for the simple reason that — our wants will not be — out of harmony — with His
	5.	Jesus tells us that the, "Father is glorified by this" — that is our abiding in the Lord—because while coming to Him—with an abiding life we are able to see answered prayer producing "fruit" that brings glory to
	6.	A failure to see one's prayers answered means something is not right in the believer's life — namely that he is not truly abiding in Christ and in His Word—and so his prayers are improper & unanswered.
	7.	The purpose of bearing 'fruit' is not to bring glory to us but to God and when we show God—working in and through us by answered prayer an unbelieving world will God at work & "by this" is God "glorified."
B.	W	e should pray because God us to pray.
	1.	Jesus admonished & commanded us to as seen in Luke 18:1:
		1 Now He was telling them a parable to show that at all times they ought to pray and not to lose heart,
	2.	Some teach that the emphasis of this parable is that — if we do not pray, we will "lose heart" or we will become so discouraged that we will
	3.	But if we read the entire parable carefully, Jesus is speaking about praying "at all times" and in the process — we are "not to lose heart."

4.	Jesus did not mean — that we should always be — on our knees or in our prayer closets—or that we should go about—with bowed heads & closed eyes but that we should always in what is called, "a spirit of prayer."
5.	With the same encouragement & command to pray, the Apostle Paul instructed to — "pray without ceasing" (1 Thessalonians 5:17).
6.	Prayer is much more than the words of our lips, but it really represents the cry & desires & the expectations & the praise that is in our
7.	And so, if our hearts — are continually bent towards God — then we will constantly be in fellowship with God, often without ever saying a
8.	Luke records — that Jesus told us this parable — so that we might not "lose heart" because Jesus knew it is to "lose heart" in prayer.
9.	We can "lose heart" because prayer can be "hard work" and so we end up being inconsistent in persevering — because we undisciplined.
10.	Colossians chapter 4, speaks of the necessity & of prayer (4:4,12):
Je	2 Devote yourselves to prayer, keeping alert in it with an attitude of thanksgiving 12 Epaphras, who is one of your number, a bondslave of esus Christ, sends you his greetings, always laboring earnestly for you in his orayers, that you may stand perfect and fully assured in all the will of God.
11.	Paul encouraged the Colossians with Epaphras' example because was, "always laboring earnestly for you in his prayers" (Col. 4:12).
12.	Paul knew that prayer was hard work that required heartfelt
13.	It is easy to "lose heart" because we are in a spiritual battle & so Satan hates prayer—because he knows that prayer—moves the hand of
14.	It is easy to "lose heart" either through our ignorance of what God has revealed in reference to how He works through prayer—or we "lose heart" due to our unbelief in that — we are not convinced of the behind our prayers.
15.	Sadly, too often — prayer becomes a last resort — instead of our resource & so Jesus ends His parable with a sobering question (18:8b):
	"However, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?"
16.	This parable that concludes with this question cannot be divorced from the discussion of Christ's from Heaven that He just finished.

	Jesus taught in Luke 17:22–37—because the "last days" will be filled corruption and spiritual death and unbelief and apostasy.
•	He just likened His return — to "the days of Noah" (17:26-28) and to "the days of Lot" (17:28-29) — such that in Noah's day — only eight people were saved & in Lot's day only were saved out of Sodom.
;	Where evil and moral corruption are — judgment must follow (17:37), and so — believers are not to "lose heart" especially — as we approach the end of the age that will be characterized lawlessness & unbelief.
	Passages like 1 Timothy 4 and 2 Timothy 3 — paint a dark picture of the last days and so it is essential that we and "not lose heart."
C. We	should pray because God in the prayer of the righteous.
	While prayer at times can be " hard work " it can also be delightful and refreshing and encouraging for us, and it be pleasing to God—for He said in Proverbs 15:8:
	8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD, But the prayer of the upright is His delight .
	The godly man or woman—delights God with their prayer which is why the Lord Jesus couldthe Samaritan woman in John 4:23:
	at an hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the r in spirit and truth; for such people the Father seeks to be His worshipers.
i	The Lord Jesus had just told this lady, "an hour is coming when neither n this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father" (4:21), to underscore that it is the location that makes worship authentic.
	Prayer & worship are not merely an "external act" that you can accomplish by going to a place, but it is an issue of the that the Father "seeks."
	Clearly, God does delight in everyone's prayer—for Jesus said on another occasion quoting Isaiah 29:13 as recorded in Matthew 15:8:
	8 'This people honors Me with their lips, But their heart is far away from Me.
c	Prayer is first and foremost an experience of the "heart" that can only come from a person who is born-again and who is in fellowship with God for it is — this kind of prayer — that delights God's

D. W	e should pray because prayer things.
1.	In light of the fact that God is sovereign over everything in the universe, and that He ultimately "works all things after the counsel of His will" (Ephesians 1:11), someone might, "Then why should we pray?"
2.	The simplest answer is that God who created us in His image as free moral agents has ordained—both the ends & the means to accomplish His
3.	For example, He has ordained that, "WHOEVER WILL CALL ON THE NAME OF THE LORD WILL BE SAVED" (Romans 10:13)—but He has also ordained that that His message out—through Christians sharing it (Romans 10:14).
4.	Our God is over all & so He has determined what will happen, as well as the that will make happen—what He has determined to happen.
5.	And so, in the case of prayer, we know that God has ordained that He will make certain things happen — in response to our intercession — which is why God commands us to pray — because prayer things.
6.	For instance, prayer can make us strong & keep us from sin which is Jesus said in Matthew 26:41, "Keep watching and praying that you may not enter into temptation; the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."
7.	We know in the days of King Ahab — that God ordained a drought as a judgment on the nation — to bring about repentance — a drought both whose start & end were ordained by (1 Kings 17:1–7; 18:41–46).
8.	But from thenarrative — as well as James 5:17–18 — we also know that the start & end of the drought occurred as a result of Elijah's prayer:
not	lijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it would rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months. 18 Then he prayed again, and the sky poured rain and the earth produced its fruit.
9.	So, in the case of the drought — it was ordained by God to happen and yet — it happened because — Elijah for it to happen.
10.	Both God's sovereign determination — and the prayers of Elijah brought about the start & end to the drought—because God ordained it to happen and He ordained it would accomplished through the prayers of Elijah.
11.	Please understand, it is not that prayer changes God's mind—for in the case of Elijah the prophet, he was not giving God new information nor was he presenting to God—something that God had anticipated.

IV. What Should Be Included In Prayer?

While it is impossible to tightly categorize prayer or to dictate a particular order in the kind of prayer we should exercise, prayer can be summarized into five major categories.

A.	We should pray with
	1. When God saves us, He credits to our person Christ's righteousness giving us a status before the Lord (Romans 5:1; 2 Cor. 5:21).
	2. When God saves us, He not only wipes the slate clean—but He also credits to account Christ's perfection calling us "holy ones."
	3. However, as justified "saints" (Romans 1:7)—God still calls us to walk in holiness and when—we fail in our practice—to live out our new position, it is essential that we confess any known to God in prayer (1 Jn. 1:9):
	9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
	4. There is no set to the kind of prayers we may offer God.
	5. Sometimes we might first go to God — with "confession" of known sin, while other times we might begin our prayers with praise—but then in the process, our own sinful hearts are revealed, changing prayer to "confession."
3 '	Who may ascend into the hill of the LORD? And who may stand in His holy place? 4 He who has clean hands and a pure heart, Who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood And has not sworn deceitfully (Psalm 24:3–4).
В.	We should pray with
	1. The Bible commands us in 1 Thessalonians 5:18, "in everything give thanks; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus."
	2. In the New Testament, there are repeated admonitions to "give thanks" to God and so thanksgiving is always — to be a of our prayers.
	3. In similar fashion, the Apostle Paul instructs the Philippians & (4:6):
	6 Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.
	4. That "thankfulness" should be a regular of our prayer life is also underscored in Paul's first letter to Timothy when he says (1 Tim. 2:1).

1 First of all, then, I urge that entreaties and prayers, petitions and thanksgivings, be made on behalf of all men,
5. In life there will be those things that we can complain about, but if we believe in God's providence working everything "together for good" then we will find our hearts filled "with thanksgiving."
6. A prayer of "thanksgiving" not only express gratitude but faith or trust that has everything—under His sovereign control (Romans 8:28):
28 And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.
7. When we express "thanksgiving" to God — we are not only acknowledgin our gratitude to Him — but we are acknowledging — that is in charge and that, "without faith it is impossible to please Him" (Hebrews 11:6).
C. We should pray with
1. A prayer of "worship" is similar to the prayer of "thanksgiving" with difference being—that "adoration" focuses on who God is, while prayers of "thanksgiving" focus on what God has
2. In the prayer pattern—often called 'The Lord's Prayer' that the Lord Jes gave to all of His disciples, He instructs us to with a focus of worsh
9 "Pray, then, in this way: 'Our Father who is in heaven, Hallowed be Your name' (Matthew 6:9).
3. You will often discover that as you focus on who God is, that your heart will not only be filled with praise but that you will be able to approach God with a believing heart—for the other requests — that you
4. We see the disciples first focusing on God's character on the occasion whe their had been threatened — by the religious officials in Jerusalem
5. They begin their prayer by first praising God—as sustainer over all of creation (4:23) —as the One who is sovereign over all rulers (4:24-25), and as the One who supervises the events of this world (4:27-28).
6. Then after they take the time to remember who God is—then and only the are they to bring their requests believing Him to answer (Acts 4:29-31
7. When you and I pray — we need to get our prayers into perspective by not just asking God for our needs—but by praising God for who He

D.	We should pray with
	. The Hebrew and Greek words — most often translated "supplication" in the Bible literally mean, "a request or petition" & so "supplication" is asking God for something—like our daily (Matthew 6:11).
	2. Unlike an "intercessory prayer" — which is praying — on behalf of others the prayer of "supplication" is generally a request the person praying
	3. The Bible includes many prayers of "supplication" especially in the Psalm as God's people ask for mercy (Ps. 4:1), for God's leading (Ps. 5:8), for His deliverance enemies (Ps. 6:4) & from persecution (Ps. 7:1) and so or	S

	6 Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. 7 And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus (Philippians 4:6–7).
	6. God loves us and cares about our needs which is why He invites us to 11 "If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give what is good to those who ask Him (Matthew 7:11)!
E.	We should pray with
	. Intercessory prayer is the act of praying on of another person.
	2. Many times, our prayers include requests for others as we "intercede" for them just as Jesus, "always lives to make intercession for" us (Heb. 7:25).
	3. The whole of Christ's "High Priestly Prayer" in John chapter 17, is a prayer on behalf of His disciples & for all believers to Paul reminds us of this ministry of Jesus for in Romans chanter 8.

31 What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who is against us? 32 He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him over for us all, how will He not also with Him freely give us all things? 33 Who will bring a charge against God's elect? God is the one who justifies; 34 who is the one who condemns? Christ Jesus is He who died, yes, rather who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us.
5. Because of Jesus' intercessory ministry for us (1 Timothy 2:5), we can now by both example and command — intercede in prayer on behalf of other Christians & for those who are lost—asking for God's will to be
6. A good example of intercessory prayer is seen in Daniel 9 as Daniel intercedes for Israel according to the revealed of God (2), in a spirit of fervency & humility (3, 5-15), remembering God's attributes (4,7,9,15) & glory (16-19).
7. While intercessory prayer — can have many expressions — many times as Daniel prayed — we come to God on behalf of others — recognizing our own shortcomings — while seeking for God's will to be
8. Sadly, in recent decades—some evangelical Christians have made those who are committed to intercessory prayer to a class of "super-Christians" when in reality—all Christians are called to involved in intercessory prayer.
9. Clearly, in Acts 12 when Peter was imprisoned—he did limit his need for prayer to a special class of people—but asked the whole church to pray (25).
10. Likewise, Paul in asking others to pray for him did not limit his request to those with a "special calling to intercession" but invited the whole church to pray (Colossians 4:3-4) because intercessory prayer is for believers.
11. The idea that intercession is the privilege and calling of only some has no biblical foundation—and it often to a sense of pride & superiority.
12. It is a great thing—when we pray for others—and when others pray for
V. What Are Some Hindrances to Answered Prayer?
One of the most rewarding experiences for the Christian is to see his prayer answered. Unfortunately, many Christians never stop and consider what it is that might be preventing God from responding to their prayers.
A. Unconfessed can hinder our prayers (Psalm 32:3-5; 66:18; 1 John 1:9).
1. We studied earlier in this section — the lesson of Isaiah 59:1&2:

your G	od, And your sins have hidden His face from you so that He does not hear.
	t is not that God "cannot hear" you — but that He will not "hear" ou if there is known unconfessed—unrepented in your life.
	and so, the psalmist in Psalm 66:18—echoes this truth when he writes, "If I regard wickedness in my heart, The Lord will not hear."
	The Hebrew word for "regard" (ra'ah) refers "to holding on to" or "to cherish" or "to harbor" or — "to give attention to" or "to coddle" — some sin in the life.
e	f we grow — fond of some sin — you can pray with — all the passion and xcitement that you can muster — but sin will stop your prayers cold and he problem will be rectified — until the sin is confessed (1 John 1:9).
	When we see unanswered prayer, we should not immediately assume hat what — we are asking for — is not according — to His t is possible that the reason it might not be answered—is due to a sin issue hat needs to be addressed & so should pray as David did in Psalm 139:
	rch me, O God, and know my heart; Try me and know my anxious thoughts; nd see if there be any hurtful way in me, And lead me in the everlasting way.
	Again, a delayed answer to our prayer does not mean that God will deny the equest, but the delay might be to sin—that needs to be repented of.
	King David for nine months — failed to acknowledge his sin to the Lord and or this reason—God did not to answer His prayer until he confessed his
4 For day and fever heat of I said, "I wi Selah. 6 The	pt silent about my sin, my body wasted away Through my groaning all day long. d night Your hand was heavy upon me; My vitality was drained away as with the summer. Selah. 5 I acknowledged my sin to You, And my iniquity I did not hide; ll confess my transgressions to the LORD"; And You forgave the guilt of my sin. refore, let everyone who is godly pray to You in a time when You may be found; arely in a flood of great waters they will not reach him (Psalm 32:3–6).
B. An_	spirit can hinder our prayers.
a	esus told us in Mark 11:25, "Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have nything against anyone, so that your Father who is in heaven will also forgive ou your transgressions" — otherwise our prayers — will hindered.

1 Behold, the LORD'S hand is not so short That it cannot save; Nor is His ear so dull That it cannot hear. 2 But your iniquities have made a separation between you and

2.	Jesus reminds us in this verse — that our prayer for forgiveness will be honored—unless we ourselves practice forgiveness.
3.	Likewise, Jesus said in Matthew 6:15, "But if you do not forgive others, then your Father will not forgive your transgressions."
4.	The Lord Jesus did not teach that we earn God's forgiveness by forgiving others, for this — would be contrary to — God's grace and mercy.
	However—if we have truly experienced "salvation's forgiveness" then we have a "disposition to forgive others" — as Jesus illustrated in the parable of — the unforgiving servant (Matthew 18:21–35).
6.	We learned earlier — that as a general principle — a believer will forgive others yet it is possible for a believer to withhold forgiveness & so God commands to:
	32 Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you (Ephesians 4:32).
7.	God teaches His people in the above verse—that our forgiveness "to one another is to be patterned — after the forgiveness — that Jesus has us.
8.	God is commanding us to show—the same kindness, tender heartedness and forgiveness as He shows us because He knows we withhold it.
9.	These verses describing true Christians — remind us all that since we have the capacity to forgive as born-again people—if we refuse to forgive someone else, then we are living in sin—and God will hear and answer—our prayers.
10.	For our prayers to be effective — our hearts must be clear vertically with God and horizontally with our neighbor—for Jesus said in Matthew 5:23-24:
your l	erefore if you are presenting your offering at the altar, and there remember that brother has something against you, 24 leave your offering there before the altar o; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and present your offering.
11.	Jesus was essentially saying — before you go to God in prayer — do your part to make things right with anyone with whom you have wronged & are at at.
12.	If after you have gone in humility to make amends with someone, at that it is up to that individual — to receive your apology and to forgive.
	18 If possible, so far as it depends on you, be at peace with all men (Romans 12:18).

13. And if you have been wronged by someone, it is essential that you forgive them, even if they — do take responsibility — or your prayers will be hindered.
C. An attitude can hinder our prayers.
1. Solomon reminds us in Proverbs 21:13, "He who shuts his ear to the cry of the poor Will also cry himself and not be answered."
2. Though many proverbs tell of poverty caused by laziness & deceit, other proverbs—express God's compassion—towards the
3. God cares about the poor and He commands us to have a compassionate heart towards them — lest "also cry and not be answered."
4. God sometimes through our lack of compassion for people in need will allow us to reap — what we have sown (Galatians 6:9) — for if we are silent to people's needs God may arrange it — so we will not be heard — in our time of
5. If you make your own needs know to God which you should (Philippians 4:6), but at the same time—ignore a known need that has been brought your way—then by "standard of measure it will be measured to you in return" (Lk. 6:36).
6. This principle of having an "uncaring attitude" is also highlighted in the marriage relationship where the husband whom God has privileged to be the leader—has abused his leadership—in not caring for his
7 You husbands in the same way, live with your wives in an understanding way, as with someone weaker, since she is a woman; and show her honor as a fellow heir of the grace of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered (1 Peter 3:7).
7. A godly husband—does not merely share "the same roof" with his wife—but he truly lives with her "in an understanding way" — for as he knows — what her needs and wants and desires are — then he better — meet those needs.
8. God reminds us that a husband is not necessarily stronger spiritually than his wife, but generally speaking he is stronger physically & so he is to "show her honor" by appreciating her feminine nature—and respond accordingly.
9. When a husband expects more from his wife than is appropriate, then he is showing her "dishonor" & his "prayers" are to be "hindered."
10. While it is assumed that husbands & wives will pray together (1 Cor. 7:5), a husband's personal prayer life — is indexed to his for his wife.

	11.	God intends the relationship of a married couple to be very powerful display of the love that Jesus Christ has for His Church — which is why the devil does all he to come between a couple—and make them at odds—with one another.
	12.	Certainly, while a wife's prayers can be hindered too—since God has called the husband to lead it is imperative that he does all that he can, to keep harmony in the home by caring for his wife & quickly resolving strife or disagreement.
D.	Im	npure can hinder our prayers.
	1.	James reminds us — "You ask and do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it on your pleasures" (James 4:3).
	2.	By nature, we are self-serving and self-centered & so it is very important that when we make our needs known to God — that we always defer to His
	3.	It has well been said that the purpose of prayer is not to get man's will done in heaven — but to get God's will — done on
	4.	Sadly, sometimes prayer can be used as "a cloak" to hide one's desires.
	5.	Over the years I have heard Christians tell me, "But I prayed about it!" & so they use this — as one of their biggest excuses — to have their way.
	6.	Instead of seeking God's will — sometimes in prayer "with wrong motives" we can tell God what He is supposed to do & we get angry if He does respond.
	7.	Sometimes a Christian—can make a legitimate request to God in prayer, but the motive with which they make it—is illegitimate & so God chooses to answer.
	8.	James reminds us that if we are just concerned only with their own "pleasures" and not about other people' needs or God's glory—then may not answer.
Ε.	N	ot God through prayer can hinder our prayers.
	1.	Perhaps the hindrance to "answered prayer" is "unasked prayer."
	2.	Once again James reminds us, "You do not have because you do not ask" (James 4:2) — and if you "do not ask" — then will — not receive.
	3.	Contextually, James is dealing with Christians who are prayerless & the reason they do not pray is because—they have let "worldliness" capture their
	4.	As a general rule — the more intimate your fellowship with God, the more you will pray—and the corollary is true—if you are out of fellowship with God your thought will be to pray.

5. When your heart—is out of tune with God then you will not pray, because "worldliness" — always leads — to a "prayerless"
6. The greatest problem of prayer is not 'unanswered prayer' but 'unasked prayer' and it is 'unasked' because one's life is out sync with God's
7. As a general principle, God does not give to us—unless we "ask" and so, if we are seeing little happen in our lives — for God & for His kingdom, it is almost certain because — we have asked — for so "Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full" (John 16:24).
8. I suppose these five reasons as to why God does not answer our prayers can be — summarized in the word — "unbelief."
9. It is faith that pleases God — and if our prayer is wanting — it simply is a reflection that our spiritual life is deficient—because we are not living by faith.
"And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him" (Hebrews 11:6).
How Should We Pray?
Prayer can express itself in many different ways, in many different contexts, with many different people, and potentially with many different expressions.
A. We should pray
1. In Acts 2:42, shortly after Pentecost, we see an expression of corporate prayer:
42 They were continually devoting themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.
2. Corporate prayer is an important part of the of the church, just as much as sound doctrine is—as reflected in "the apostle's teaching" and as much as "fellowship" & "the breaking of bread" is essential to a healthy local church.
3. Throughout the Book of Acts we see corporate prayer (4:23-31; 12:5; 13:2).
4. When the Lord taught His disciples how to pray, He said, "Pray, then in this way: Our Father who is in heaven" and not, "My Father who is in heaven," showing us — of our for "corporate prayer" (Matthew 6:9).

VI.

5. The same Holy Spirit who dwells within each believer (Romans 8:9), makes not just individually, but corporately "the temple of God" (1 Corinthians 3:16), & so we are joined together in a unique bond of fellowship found nowhere else.
6. Since we are joined together—God expects us to pray together for corporate prayer edifies & unifies us—as we share our common (Galatians 6:2).
7. When teaching us about church discipline, Jesus taught us a principle of how essential praying with others is and just alone by oneself:
19 "Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything that they may ask it shall be done for them by My Father who is in heaven. 20 "For where two or three have gathered together in My name, I am there in their midst" (Matthew 18:19-20).
8. These verses show us that corporate prayer—can be as small as "two or three," of Jesus' followers at a time, or it might the entire church (Colossians 4:2).
9. He wants us to know that there is real power when there is agreement prayer
10. And His promise when we exercise corporate prayer—is that He is right there "in their midst" meaning He is to everyone—and not just to the leader.
11. When we pray corporately, agreeing with each other — we are cooperating with God to bring about His plan—not trying to Him to do our will.
12. While it would be wrong to conclude — that when "two or three are gathered" to pray that we receive some kind of magical prayer power boost, nonetheless there is a consensus of faith that can take place—in asking God for His
13. Corporate prayer is important because it creates unity (John 17:22-23), and it is the vehicle to carry each other's burdens (Galatians 6:2) & to show our for each other (Romans 15:30) as we have our corporate needs met (Hebrews 4:16):
16 Therefore let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.
B. We should pray
1. In the early church we find examples of both corporate prayer & individual private prayer — as modeled the disciples (Acts 4:23-41 cf. Acts 10:9).
2. Christ by example taught us our need to spend time with God in prayer.
35 In the early morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house, and went away to a secluded place, and was praying there (Mark 1:35).

16 But Jesus Himself would often slip away to the wilderness and pray (Luke 5:16).
12 It was at this time that He went off to the mountain to pray, and He spent the whole night in prayer to God (Luke 6:12).
23 After He had sent the crowds away, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray; and when it was evening, He was there alone (Matthew 14:23).
3. In His sermon given on the mount, Jesus taught that the real of your prayer life is not what you do in corporate prayer—but what you do in your individual prayer life — lest we be guilty of the religious Pharisaism — that He condemns.
6 "But you, when you pray, go into your inner room, close your door and pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees what is done in secret will reward you (Matthew 6:6).
4we pray only to be 'seen by men' then we have become a religious exhibitionist.
5. If you are trying to discern — whether your public praying is legitimate, then a starting place is simply to ask, "What is my private prayer life like?"
6. It is not wrong to pray in public, unless the only time we pray is in public and then we are of — the Pharisaical hypocrisy — that Jesus warned of.
7. When Jesus said — "go into your inner room, close your door and pray to your Father who is in secret" — He is admonishing us to have a place in order to close the "on looking eyes of men" to "the eyes of God."
8. Balance in our private prayer life should not be taken to extremes—because if all our praying—was to be kept in secret—then we would have to give up all church worship services — all prayer meetings — and family prayer.
9. Your 'inner room' might be outside as it was for Christ, or on a rooftop as it was for Peter—or in your automobile during your lunch hour—or a literal closet.
10. The real test of—your individual prayer life—is not what you do in public but what you do you in private & so Jesus taught need a place to pray secretly.
C. We should pray
1. Jesus taught that hypocrisy in prayer is not the only sin to avoid in prayer, for He wants our prayers to be "meaningful" and not "mechanical."
2. Hypocrisy in prayer—is a misuse of "the purpose of prayer" in that it diverts the glory of God to man—just like verbosity is a misuse of "the nature of prayer" in that it degrades prayer from something personal to the mere recitation of

D. We shou	uld pray
He to		of our need to persist in prayer when ng neighbor and a reluctant v 7:7-11 & James 5:16).

	2.	The Lord Jesus paints the picture—of a fired and selfish neighbor who does not want to be bothered—but he finally decides to get up and meet the needs of annoying friend—for Jesus wants to show how different God is (Luke 11:9-13).
	3.	The reason we are not bugging God when we pray is because we are His children and are not neighbors or acquaintances or even just friends—we are family.
	4.	Likewise, our Father is like this man's neighbor for He never sleeps, or gets impatient or irritable & He always delights in meeting the needs of His children.
	5.	Persistence for the bothersome friend paid off in that he annoyed his neighbor so much that the neighbor responded, but God is annoyed for He cares deeply.
	6.	It is in this context—of knowing that God is eager to respond—that He tells us to on asking, seeking & knocking—Jesus is teaching "persistence" in prayer.
	7.	Even if our prayer has not been answered in the way we might expect, we must upon God — to answer in His own — perfect time.
	8.	God uses 'persistent prayer' to develop a deeper reliance & trust in Him which which will bring a deeper sense of gratitude & humility in us (James 4:6).
E.	W	e should pray at times with
	1.	Comparing the many passages that address fasting—we can fasting as, "going without food for a specified period of time for a spiritual purpose."
	2.	The Lord Jesus took it for granted that "fasting" would have a place in the of His followers — as He taught in Matthew 6:17-18.
	3.	Today, we lay a lot of stress on—daily prayer & sacrificial giving, yet there is very little attention given to our to fast & pray.
	4.	When you study those who fasted in the Bible, you discover several reasons as to God's people fasted including:
		 * To humble yourself before God (Ezra 8:21-23; Psalm 35:13). * To intensify your prayer life (2 Corinthians 12:10; Matthew 17:21) * To help discern God's specific will (Acts 13:2-3; 14:23). * To express repentance before God (Nehemiah 9:1-2). * To seek God's help for an impossible situation (Esther 4:10-17).
	5.	The above passages remind us that fasting can have a corporate expression or it can be done in secret not for the praise of but of God (Mt. 5:16).

F. '	We should pray
	1. The Lord Jesus promised in Matthew 21:22, "all things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive" — but how do we this faith — to believe?
	2. Expectant prayer is not trying to work yourself up into a certain state of mind — because God does not require you — to have great faith, but to have in a great God — for this reason Jesus promised:
if y	And He said to them, "Because of the littleness of your faith; for truly I say to you, ou have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible to you (Matthew 17:20).
	3. The faith that we must have, has more to do with the quality of faith than with the quantity of faith—for Jesus taught that faith as small as "a mustard seed" (Mark 4:31) — can accomplish great things — if that faith is in
	4. It is like your eye — you have never seen your eye — but only a reflection of you eye in a mirror—even so you cannot see faith—you can only see the evidence of your faith—because faith always to its object—the Lord Himself.
	5. What makes the difference — is so much — "the amount of our faith" but "the object of our faith" which will grow through our exposure to His Word & "so faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ" (Rom. 10:17).
	7. Learning the Bible, shows us more of what God is like & what He desires for us which is the only possible way we can pray according to His (1 Jn. 5:14–15).
	8. God grows our faith as we obey Him—for only those who walk in obedience can pray in the Spirit (Ephesians 6:18) & learn more of what God is like—which in turn allows us to believe & trust Him — for even things (John 14:21).
	9. If you know—you are abiding in Christ—and you are praying according to the Bible, then approach God in faith—expecting Him to your prayer.
	7 "If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you (John 15:7).
1	10. Start praying specifically — with "faith-sized" requests which are expressions of your faith that are so large that causes you to doubt if God will answer.
1	11. Praying for a particular person or issue in accordance with your faith does not i any way God — but it recognizes 'the size of your faith' and what you ca trust God to do—which will result in your believing Him—for greater answers
