

Family Discussion Questions:

Introduction:

1. Are you good at using clues to figure things out? Why or why not?
2. How does your family prepare the home when you're expecting company?

What do I think?

1. When it comes to the end times, do lean more towards sensationalizing or trivializing? Why?
2. Why do you think it's important that we anticipate and expect Christ's return?
3. Why do you think we should do this if it's already been 2000 years?

What does God say?

1. Read Revelation 22: 12-15 – Why does Jesus say He is coming quickly?
2. Who is blessed and who isn't in these verses? Why?
3. Read Revelation 22:16-21 – Who can come to Christ according to verse 17?
4. What do you think of the warning of verses 18 and 19?
5. Looking at your life, can you welcome Jesus back today and say "Even so, come Lord Jesus?"

What steps will I take?

1. What priorities do you need to rearrange to be ready for Jesus?
2. How can you better live each day as if Jesus was returning today?

Challenge:

This week think about one area of your life you can improve each day to be ready for the return of Christ. When making decisions ask yourself the question "would I want to be doing this when Jesus returns?" Understand that we are seeing many biblical signs that we may be in the last of the last days and live your life with the knowledge that we are closer to the return of Christ than we ever have been.
