

The Path to Home

Part 2

Titus 2:3-5

3 Older women likewise are to be reverent in their behavior, not malicious gossips, nor enslaved to much wine, teaching what is good, 4 that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, 5 to be sensible, pure, workers at home, kind, being subject to their own husbands, that the word of God may not be dishonored.

Titus Fellowships

Today's message is difficult to teach because I realize that many women are already in situations where living out God's ideal in the home seems to be impossible. Remember, God meets you where you are and He will help you no matter your circumstance. Just deal with areas as He shows them to you, seek godly counsel when needed, and trust God.

1. How has today's message affected you?
2. Whether you are married or not, do you have a better understanding of how a husband and wife are to work together and that neither created role is better than the other?
3. Do you let God's word shape you more than you let the messages of the world shape you?
4. Is there any one thing that has particularly challenged your way of thinking today?
5. If you are married, would your husband say that you are on his team? Do you care about his work?
6. Are you productive in your home?
7. If you are working outside the home, are you doing it in such a way that you are going in an entirely different direction from your husband?

1 Samuel 12:24

“Only fear the Lord and serve Him in truth with all your heart;
for consider what great things He has done for you.”
