2. Now, we are all women here today – but, how do these exhortations apply to your life as a woman?

3. How does Solomon describe the foolish woman – in her speech, in her dress, in her actions? What does she do? What does she say? How does she present herself?
4. How does Solomon describe the man who gave in?
5. What do you see from this passage about dealing with temptation and sin in your own life? How do you view the men around you? How do you present yourself?

In verses 24-27

6. What happened to the man who listened to the foolish woman?
7. What application can you make from this passage?
8. If you are a mom, how can you help with your daughters and your sons?
9. If you are a teen or single woman, what should you learn from this passage?
10. How can you keep your way pure? Psalm 119:9

You must choose whom you will serve.
You must decide whether to be a woman of wisdom or a woman of folly.

Our world is filled with foolish women. A wise woman is rare ... will you dare to be wise?
